With a glorious rural setting in the heart of the Suffolk countryside, Christmas at Seckford Hall has to be the most perfect venue for your festive celebrations.

The Seckford team are committed to ensuring that you enjoy every moment whether it is an overnight stay, party night or a gathering of friends in their restaurant 1530.

Their 2 AA Rosette Restaurant, 1530, will offer a superb menu on both Christmas and Boxing Day with a selection of traditional as well as seasonal favourites.

So bring the family or a gathering of friends and treat yourself to a stress free Christmas this year where you can enjoy superb food in glorious traditional surroundings.

We all love a party and Seckford Hall knows just how to host a celebration! What better setting than this grand Tudor hotel to enjoy a party night with friends or colleagues. A world away from the office party and the late night town centre, enjoy fun and festivity, superb food and dancing in the Lakeside Suite and the stunning party marquee.

However, if you are looking for a more intimate and personal way to celebrate Christmas, the hotel also offers a superb Christmas fayre lunch and dinner menu, served in their 2AA Rosette restaurant. Ideal if you want to gather together friends or colleagues without the need to book a party night, The Mulberry Suite and Garden Rooms in the new East Wing, are also available for smaller private functions, ideal for private lunches and dinners.

And to round off 2014 Seckford Hall has the precise recipe for a New Year's Eve to remember!

Every New Year is special but they aim to make it that just bit extra special. In an incomparable setting, you can either enjoy dinner in their 2 AA Rosette Restaurant or their superb dinner party in the Lakeside Suite and Marquee.

Take a look at all their Christmas and New Year packages – there's no time like the present to book and to start looking forward to enjoying the ambience of Seckford Hall this festive season.

Pressi launches corporate gifts

East-Anglian-based online gift voucher company Pressi has launched a corporate brand in conjunction with one of the region's best-known hotel and restaurant groups, Milsom Hotels & Restaurants. Following a successful trial with their Suffolk property Milsoms Kesgrave Hall the company has added the Le Talbooth restaurant and Maison Talbooth restaurant and hotel both in Dedham in Constable Country to their gift voucher options.

Based in East Bergholt near Colchester, Pressi is the first merchant for online instant gift vouchers in the region and according to founder Sue Bunting the corporate gifts brand complements their existing and popular gift voucher packages. She said there are plans to launch and market corporate packages with Pressi as well as gifts for Him and Her.

Launched in 2012, Pressi.co.uk offers an extensive range of gift vouchers options that can be sent by text or email - from chocolate and clay shooting to spa to shopping. The gift vouchers range from £5 to £550 and can be sent instantly in just three easy steps. Supporting 'shop local' independent businesses and boutique hotels, Pressi offers a 'pay as you go' principle for voucher sales.
