

Afternoon Tea

Afternoon tea, that most quintessential of English customs is, perhaps surprisingly, a relatively new tradition. Whilst the custom of drinking tea dates back to the third millennium BC in China and was popularised in England during the 1660s by King Charles II and his wife the Portuguese Infanta Catherine de Braganza, it was not until the mid 19th century that the concept of 'afternoon tea' first appeared.

Available from 12.00 noon – 5.00pm

Supreme Afternoon Tea £38pp

Enjoying the delights of Seckford signature afternoon tea, our supreme afternoon tea comes with additional savoury & sweet items including homemade scotch egg, sausage roll, macarons and chocolate truffles.

Signature Afternoon Tea £28pp

Tier after tier of delights. Starting at the bottom, sandwiches consisting of

- * Sliced egg, salad cream & tomato
- * Coronation chicken
- * Salmon mousse, cream cheese & cucumber
